Another Filibustering Expedition
Reaches Cuba in Safety.

SECOND LARGEST EVER LANDED.

The Cargo Valued at $78,000, Consisting of Rifles, Machetes, Rapid-Fire Guns and Ammunition—Sixty-Two Cubans Accompanied It—A Proposition to Purchase Cuba—Other Cuban War News.

WILMINGTON, N. C., May 31.—The Messenger prints a detailed account of the loading of the tug Alexander Jones and her departure with the schooner John D. Long of a Cuban filibustering expedition. The facts were obtained from a member of the crew of the Alexander Jones, which returned to port several days ago. His story substantially is as follows:

On Thursday night, May 13, the Jones took on a cargo of rifles, machetes, rapid-fire guns and ammunition at the wharf of the Wilmington, Newbern and Norfolk railway, in the southern limits of the city. Before she had entirely finished her cargo a report was started that officers were approaching and that the revenue cutter Morrill was getting up steam. Taking alarm at this the Jones pulled up and started out at 10:40 a. m. and crossed the bar and anchored outside.

The schooner John D. Long, having meanwhile been loaded with coal and other material at the Wilmington and Weldon railroad wharf, was shortly afterwards towed out to sea by the tug Jacob Brandon, going past the revenue cutter Colfax. On the schooner was General Nunez and another officer of the Cuban army, a Cuban pilot and Captain John O'Brien, of the filibustering tug Dauntless. At the sea buoy they went on board the Jones, anchored nearby, and Captain O'Brien took charge of the expedition. A hawser was made fast from the Jones to the schooner, and early Friday morning the tug steamed to the south with her tow. The Jacob Brandon returned to Southport.

On the way down the coast no port was entered, but off Palm Beach, on the coast of Florida, 62 Cubans were taken on board. The Jones then towed the schooner to the Bahamas, and in the vicinity anchored in the open sea on Tuesday, May 18.

On Thursday morning, May 20, the filibuster Dauntless hove in sight and came alongside the Jones and the schooner. She coaled from the schooner took a cargo of arms from the Jones and with Captain O'Brien in command headed for the Cuban coast about 60 miles away. She left the Jones between 8 and 9 o'clock Thursday night, made a successful landing in Cuba near Matanzas and after an absence of 24 hours exactly, returned to the Jones, took another cargo of war material and started for Cuba Friday night. On the last trip General Nunez and the 62 Cubans left the Jones and went on board the Dauntless and accompanied Captain O'Brien.

When the Dauntless left with her second cargo the Jones coaled from the schooner, towed her off Cape Canaveral, Fla., and turned her loose. She sailed back and got into Southport yesterday morning.

The cargo carried out of here was valued at $78,000, and is said to have been the second largest ever landed in Cuba.

The member of the crew above referred to says there is no truth in the story that the Jones was chased and fired on by a Spanish war vessel. The Jones never saw the smoke of such a war vessel while on her trip.

PALMA RECOGNIZED.

The Cuban Delegate Unofficially Received at the State Department.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—For the first time a representative of the Cuban junta has been received at the state department.

Senor Tomas Estrada Palma, head of the Cuba junta of New York, chief delegate in the United States of the Cuban government, called at the department.

Secretary Sherman, in extending the invitation to Senor Palma, was obliged to do so unofficially, and to receive him as an American citizen. The president was also "unofficially" aware of his visit.

The proposition that the Cubans buy the island was discussed by Secretary Sherman, Assistant Secretary Day and Senor Palma. It was indicated by Senor Palma that the insurgents are willing to purchase their freedom at a reasonable price. A full understanding prevailed that the necessary funds could be easily secured to float the bonds whenever Spain agrees to enter into negotiations looking to a sale of Cuba. The sanction of the junta was given to the proposed institution of correspondence having in view the relinquishment of control in Cuba by Spain for a monetary consideration. The amount which the Cubans are willing to pay, if discussed, was not divulged.

REPORT ON THE RUIZ CASE.

Consul General Lee Sends Dispatches By a Mysterious Stranger.

HAVANA, May 31.—The commission conducting the inquiry into the circumstances surrounding the death of Dr. Ruiz closed its labors at an early hour Saturday. A mysterious messenger from Washington came from Tampa on the steamer Mascotte Saturday morning, but did not land.

Mr. Fishback, secretary of the commission, accompanied by Consul General Lee's son, went on board the steamer before he sailed and held a brief consultation with the stranger, and it is supposed that they delivered to him the report of the commission and other highly important dispatches from Consul General Lee and Mr. Calhoun, who was selected to investigate Dr. Ruiz's death.

Censorship Dispatches.

HAVANA, May 31.—Captain General Weyler went from Tunas to Jucaro on Friday, but returned to Tunas yesterday.

The insurgents dynamited a passenger train between Santa Clara and Esperanza. The baggage car was capsized and the locomotive and three passenger cars were derailed, but no lives were lost.

NO FEARS OF A WAR.

Turkey's Arming Has No General Significance.

GREEK GOVERNMENT SATISFIED.

There Is No Fear That Either Bulgaria or Servia Will Abandon the Policy They Have Followed Thus Far—Turks Acting Suspicious Near Lamia Cretan Trouble Not Yet Settled.

LONDON, May 31.—The Athens correspondent of The Times says: "Turkey's continued arming and reported Russian preparations, with other rumors of a bellicose character, raise the hopes of some of the Greek newspapers that Greece may yet benefit from a general European war. But the majority of the nation, absorbed by a sad experience, is only desirous that Europe should protect Greece against her conqueror."

"There is no reason to fear that either Bulgaria or Servia will abandon the policy they have followed thus far. The Turkish troops who have been sent to the Servian and Bulgarian frontiers are only intended to replace those who were withdrawn just before the war began."

"The reports of alarming anti-dynastic troubles, published abroad, cause surprise here, as there is no sign of any such movement, nor is any prominent politician likely to commit himself to an anti-dynastic program."

DEATH ON A CROSSING.

Four Children Killed and Four Others Injured, Two of Them Fatally.

DENVER, May 31.—At three o'clock yesterday morning a spring wagon driven by Henry Marsan, a carpenter, and containing eight children, ranging in age from 3 to 9 years, was struck by a special train on the Denver and Rio Grande railroad, and as a result four of the children are dead and the others are terribly injured, two so badly that they will die. Marsan, with his three children, had been spending the day at the home of Christopher Schoneweiss, in the southern portion of the city. When ready to start for home, he took a load of children, gathered up in the neighborhood, for a short ride.

It is claimed by the police that Marsan was intoxicated and paid no attention to the signals of the engineer, but drove upon the track while the train was in plain sight and but a few feet away. The engine struck the wagon demolishing it and crushing and maiming the children in a horrible manner.

The dead are:
Elsie Marsan, aged 3.
Otto Schoneweiss, aged 5.
George Banker, aged 5.
Etta Spenser, aged 9.
The fatally injured are:
Alfred Marsan, aged 7, badly mangled.
Willie Banker, aged 3, crushed and internally injured.

Edly but not fatally hurt:
Emile Marsan, aged 6, leg broken.
Bertha Schoneweiss, badly bruised.
Henry Marsan, the driver, sustained a severe scalp wound.

EX-CONGRESSMAN BOYD DEAD.

He Came Within One Vote of Being Governor of Illinois in 1872.

LEWISTON, Ill., May 31.—Ex-Congressman Thomas A. Boyd died at his home in this city Saturday night, aged 67 years. Judge Boyd was born in Pennsylvania June 30, 1830, and came to Illinois in 1856, locating in Lewiston. Captain Boyd was elected to Congress in this (the Ninth) district in 1870, defeating George A. Wilson, of Peoria. He was re-elected to Congress in 1872 by a greatly increased majority, after which he declined to again be a candidate.

In 1888 Judge Boyd was stricken with paralysis, and since that time has been an invalid.

He came within one vote of being governor of Illinois in 1872, when he was defeated by Governor Beveridge for lieutenant governor on the ticket with Richard J. Oglesby, who was afterward chosen United States senator.

SERVING HIS SENTENCE.

The Logansport Bank Wrecker in the Ohio Penitentiary.

COLUMBUS, O., May 31.—Just one week from the date of his arrest by the United States authorities, charged with defalcations that aggregate $500,000, the doors of the Ohio penitentiary Saturday night at 10:15 clanked behind John F. Johnson, the Logansport bank wrecker. He was brought from Indianapolis by Deputy United States Marshal Jerry C. Foley, and upon his admission was assigned to Cell I, Range I and Corridor I, in Block K and I.

When escorted into the guard room and searched he was self-collected, dapper as ever, and polite to all. The mental struggle he endured was not evidenced by facial expression. He talked pleasantly to Warden Coffin, Captain Landenberger and the guards, and when led back to his cell in the new hallway he remarked that whatever else the newspapers might say, he was sure they could not call him a coward.

He was faultlessly clad in a dark business suit and appeared a model of neatness. Deputy Marshal Foley stated that Johnson read the Bible the greater part of the way from Indianapolis. The rest of the time chatted about the crops and pointed out what he termed inaccuracies in the newspaper reports of his crime.

He told Foley that in 1893 he began gambling in stocks on the boards of trade of Chicago, Detroit and Toledo. He did so for the purpose of getting out of a debt that he had assumed for his father. Deputy Foley states that Johnson's little girl, aged 11 years, knows nothing of her papa's misfortune, and has only been told that he has had to go away to stay a long time.

It was only when Johnson took from his pocket the picture of his little girl and kissed it that he showed signs of emotion. According to the rules of the penitentiary he will, with good behavior, as a result of his 10 years' sentence, serve just six years and four months.

His cell is in what is known as "Bankers' Row," where all the noted bank wreckers are confined. It is understood that within two weeks Johnson will be assigned to a clerkship in the warden's office.

REPUBLIC IN DANGER.

Startling Statement of General Benjamin Butterworth at Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, May 31.—General Butterworth, at the Memorial Day services, said: "These exercises are not for the dead," he said, "they are for the living. We best honor the soldier dead by an incorruptible purpose to keep the republic they gave their lives to save. Is our conduct worthy of the dead and the country for which they died? Merely paying tribute in words to the dead is but a mockery."

"The course of all republics has been toward the rocks. Our own is the same and for the same reason. The theory of our government is that men will preserve that which they prize most highly; but they do not. It is said that the people love liberty and home above all else, and that it would be absurd to say that they would destroy that which makes life worth living. Theoretically that is so. Practically it is not."

"The republic is in more danger today than when Fort Sumter was fired upon. There are influences that are making for ill. We have plenty of education, but education, unless leavened with morality, simply fits the man to be an expert scoundrel. Our country is in danger because corruption in our politics is as common as elections, and in our municipal and state legislature there is an organized banditti that demands tribute and sells legislation."

"The influences are ripe and ripening to destroy our government, unless we turn aside from the way we have been going and adhere to principles rather than party. There are too many men who would scorn dishonesty in private affairs who encourage it in politics. Half the world is going to the devil, because no one will shout out loud. The time has come, if the republic is to be preserved, when we will have to rebuke men out loud."

FARMER SHOT AND KILLED.

His Own Daughter Done the Deed in Dofending Herself.

MR. CLEMENS, Mich., May 31.—Frederick Heidt, a farmer in Warren township, nine miles from this city, was shot and killed yesterday afternoon by his daughter Minnie, 22 years old. The girl was arrested and brought here. The father attended church at Rosehill, but got badly intoxicated on the way home.

Entering his home when his daughter was there alone, the frenzied parent seized a razor and made for the girl. She succeeded in wresting the weapon from him, and the father's threats being repeated, the girl in her excitement grabbed a loaded gun and fired at him. The ball struck Heidt in the temple, killing him instantly.

Killed His Wife and Himself.

SAN ANTONIO, May 31.—Bud Franks, a horse trader of this city, wound up a drunken spree yesterday by murdering his wife and blowing out his brains. Franks ran the woman out of the house and followed her up the street, shooting as he ran. When the woman fell mortally wounded he put the pistol to his head and fired, killing himself instantly.

TARIFF LEGISLATION.

It Is Being Pushed Very Rapidly in the Senate.

PHENOMENAL PROGRESS MADE.

The Present Bill Is as Far Advanced Now as Was the Wilson Bill After Five Weeks of Discussion—All Other Legislation Laid Aside—Program of the Senate and House.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—The impression was general about the senate at the close of the first week's discussion of the tariff bill that the sugar schedule would be reached towards the close of the present week. The progress so far made, while it was much less marked Saturday than on previous days, is generally regarded as little less than phenomenal as modern tariff debates go. Senator Vest declares that the present bill is as far advanced now as was the Wilson bill after five weeks of discussion, while Senator Jones of Arkansas asserts that as much of the present bill was passed over on the first day consideration as was disposed of in the Wilson bill in three weeks. The Republicans generally concede that good progress has been made, but they are not inclined to felicitate themselves too much until they see what policy is to be pursued when questions of more general interest are reached than have yet been broached.

The sugar schedule in all probability will excite more prolonged and animated debate than any other in the bill. The Democrats are making very extensive preparation for the discussion of this schedule, and several set speeches will be made upon it. The indications are that various other questions of general interest will be considered in connection with the sugar duty. Senator Pettigrew is contemplating presenting his amendment against trusts in this connection, and it is certain that the Hawaiian question will come to the front in an amendment providing for the continuance of the reciprocity treaty with the Hawaiian Islands. With reference to the Hawaiian treaty, there is no longer much room for doubt that provision will be made to continue the present treaty in effect. It is probable that this will be done by a direct declaration that nothing in the bill shall be construed as abrogating the treaty. The Republican members of the committee are contemplating this change. If Senator Pettigrew insists upon offering the trust amendment to this schedule, he will precipitate one of the most interesting debates of the session. The Republicans are not yet decided whether they will caucus on the sugar schedule, but there is more or less talk to this effect.

There are two schedules to be considered after the conclusion of that under present discussion before the sugar schedule can be reached. These are the metal and wool schedules. The metal schedule is not especially objectionable to the Democrats, containing as it does many of the Wilson law rates, but it is more or less complicated and will necessarily consume time. The wool schedule will develop no little antagonism on account of the duty on lumber. There will be a quite determined effort to restore white pine lumber on the free list.

The Tillman resolution for a sugar investigation probably will be reported to the senate Tuesday. It will be passed without difficulty when taken up, according to the present outlook, but Senator Tillman will find opportunity to make another speech if there is any apparent effort at delay. The senate will not be in session today, having adjourned over on account of Decoration Day.

House Program.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—The attempt to embarrass Speaker Reed for the program of inaction pursued by the majority has become the settled policy of Representative Simpson and other members of the minority, and the sessions of the house this week will witness a continuation of these tactics. The conference reports on the sundry civil and Indian appropriation bills are ready for consideration and this week the leaders would like to dispose of them. But the difficulty now is that many of the members have gone home and at present there is no quorum in the city.

CELEBRATION CEASED.

An Anarchists' Picnic Raided and Forty-seven Prisoners Taken.

PITTSBURGH, May 31.—An Anarchist picnic at a grove near Glenwood was raided yesterday by the police and 47 men taken prisoners. The charge preferred against the prisoners is disorderly conduct and breaking the city ordinance which prohibits the sale of beer on a picnic ground. It is claimed lotteries were also in operation, and several rifles and a large lot of bullets were captured which the men said were to be used in a shooting gallery, which had not been erected at the time of the raid.

The picnic was held in celebration of the release a few days ago of Henry Bauer and Carl Nold from the penitentiary, where they had served four years for inciting a riot at Homestead at the time of the big strike at that place.

Bauer and Nold, who were among those arrested, say the action of the police is an outrage, and some one will be made to suffer for it.

THE NEW SUGAR SCANDAL.

Editorial Opinion of Legislation, Now Pending, For Trusts.

Is the country to be afflicted with a second sugar scandal? Are the "Senators from Havemeyer" ex-officio members of the finance committee, and are they to be permitted to dictate the important sugar schedule?—Chicago Evening Post (Ind. Rep.)

The Senate committee's bill, whether designed to do so or not, will give the trust a great advantage should it become a law. For that reason the country is bitterly opposed to the Senate sugar schedule, and if the Senate will heed the voice of the people that schedule will not be embraced in the new tariff.—Indianapolis Journal (Rep.)

The storm over the sugar schedule is steadily increasing. All the examinations which have been made since its report, instead of clearing it up, only make it look the blacker. It has apparently been made of a very complicated character to baffle analysis and to disguise a job, but, intricate as it is, it does not conceal the fact that it embraces a very large differential for the benefit of the trust. This conviction is universal, and it is aggravated by the stories of personal profit in connection with it.—Philadelphia Press (Rep.)

The specific charge by a responsible newspaper in Chicago that three members of the Senate speculated in the secrets of the committee rooms after the sugar schedule on the Senate tariff bill had been framed, and profited $30,000 by the transaction, is altogether too serious to be treated by the Senate with contempt or indifference.

The peculiar influence which the magnates of the sugar trust have exerted in the framing of the new sugar schedule has already created suspicions as to the integrity of the framers of the bill. If the charge against the alleged speculators shall not be investigated, it will serve to strengthen, if not confirm, this suspicion.—Philadelphia Bulletin (Rep.)

THE MASS MEETING.

Robert Green, of Bracken, the Choice of Mason County
 For Clerk of Court of Appeals.

Resolutions Pledge Renewed Support to Chicago Platform and Denounce
 Traitorous Legislators.

The Democratic mass convention at the court house Saturday afternoon was called to order promptly at 2 o'clock by Chairman Alexander, of the Executive Committee, who stated briefly that the object of the meeting was to select delegates to represent this county at a State convention to be held at Frankfort June 2nd to nominate a candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals.

On motion Mr. John C. Lovel was unanimously elected Chairman. Mr. Lovel thanked the convention for the honor, and added that though "slightly disfigured" in the recent primary he wanted it understood he was still a staunch Democrat; that he was born a Democrat and would remain one as long as he lived, and that he could always be counted on for every nominee of the party. His remarks were applauded with a vim.

Mr. Thomas D. Slattery was chosen Secretary, with Mr. J. Elgin Anderson, of the Dover News, and M. E. Marsh, of the BULLETIN, as assistants.

On motion of Hon. Charles B. Poyntz, the Chair was authorized to appoint a committee of three to select delegates to the State convention. The Chair named Mr. Poyntz, Mr. Arthur Fox, of Dover, and Mr. A. D. Dickson, of Orangeburg, as said committee.

While the committee was out, the following resolutions were presented by Judge Thomas R. Phister and adopted without a dissenting vote:

Resolved, That we, the Democrats of Mason County, in convention assembled, do hereby renew our allegiance to the principles of Democracy as set forth in the platform adopted by the Democracy at the Chicago convention in July, 1896, and pledge ourselves to their earnest support.

2. That we condemn those members of the last Legislature who were elected as Democrats but who deserted the nominee of the party for United States Senator and thereby aided in the election of a Republican Senator from Kentucky.

3. That we sincerely regret the defeat of that true Democrat and incorruptible statesman, J. C. S. Blackburn, for re-election to the office he has so worthily held.

4. That the delegates of this convention to the State convention at Frankfort June 2nd be and they are hereby instructed to vote for Hon. Robert Green for the nomination as Clerk of the Court of Appeals as long as his name may be before the convention, and to use all honorable means to secure his nomination, and to vote as a unit on all questions before said convention.

5. That the delegates attending in person on said convention shall alone be authorized to cast the vote of Mason County.

The committee reported the following delegates to the State convention:

Jno. W. Alexander, Samuel Stairs, Wm. Hawes, L. W. Robertson, J. C. Everett, A. F. Respass, W. P. Ooms, J. N. Kehoe, Henry Dieterleib, W. D. Cushman, W. W. Cook, Chas. B. Poyntz, Thos. R. Phister, M. A. O'Hare, L. W. Galbraith, Dr. J. A. Reed, C. C. Dobyns, C. B. Pearce, Jr., Logan Marshall, Wm. Gabby, W. P. Smoot, E. A. Robinson, A. D. Dickson, N. T. Goddard, Jas. Rowe, T. A. Keith, Jno. C. Adamson, John Hord, Henry Burtle.	E. L. Worthington, G. S. Wall, M. J. McCarthy, J. C. Jefferson, John Clift, W. H. Coryell, Pierce Calvert, Chas. Rhodes, T. F. Goodwin, Leon Patterson, John C. Lovel, John L. Whitaker, Geo. W. Sulser, C. S. Watson, W. L. Sallee, A. E. Cole, T. L. Best, Thos. Worthington, John Collopy, Dr. W. H. Outten, Arthur Fox, P. P. Parker, James Cooper, Thos. Tuggle, James Key, J. M. Frazee, W. W. McIlvain, W. H. Thomas, Andrew Ring.

The report was adopted, after which the convention adjourned.

Reports from the conventions throughout the State show that Green leads on the instructed vote, but has not enough to give him the nomination. Fleming, Bracken, Robertson, Lewis and Nicholas, in addition to Mason in this Congressional district, instructed for him. He has 148 instructed votes, Shackelford 136, Ford 103, Richardson 131, Mason 88, and Watson 85.

The convention at Frankfort Wednesday promises an interesting fight. The total vote in the State convention is 1,094.

Rumor That Dr. McClung Has Skipped to Canada.

Portsmouth Times: "The Kentucky court for the Maysville district convenes in Maysville next week. The case of Dr. S. T. McClung, formerly of this city, will come up for trial before this court. The doctor, it will be remembered, tried to beat a Maysville bank out of several hundred dollars. It is not likely that McClung will ever show up, and will forfeit his bond. His conviction is sure and a long penitentiary sentence stares him in the face. An East End gentleman received a letter from McClung recently in reference to a business matter. The letter was written in Omaha, Neb., and mailed in St. Paul, Minn. This gives some foundation to the rumor that McClung has skipped the country and is now in Canada."

DECORATION DAY.

Over the Graves of the Nation's Dead Flowers Were Strewed.

The Memorial Exercises at the Cemetery
Attended By a Very Large Crowd.
Maj. Wood's Address.

"Cover them over, the Blue and the Gray;
Deck them with garlands of roses to-day;
Once in the carnage they lay side by side;
Once for their firesides they valiantly died.
Cover them over, those heroes of ours,
Cover them over with beautiful flowers;
Deck them with garlands, those heroes of ours,
And cover them over with beautiful flowers."

The Decoration Day exercises at the cemetery Sunday afternoon attracted one of the largest crowds ever present on a like occasion.

The day was almost an ideal one, and it is estimated that 2,000 or more people from Maysville and vicinity assembled in the "silent city of the dead," bringing beautiful flowers to strew the graves of the departed heroes and loved ones.

The exercises at the cemetery were under the auspices of Jos. Heiser Post, G. A. R. Major John Walsh acted as master of ceremonies. Forty-five little girls represented the various States of the Union.

Having assembled about the Soldiers' monument, patriotic hymns were sung and there were other exercises.

Later the crowd adjourned to Dietrich's Grove, where the address of the day was delivered by Major A. T. Wood, of Mt. Sterling. Major Wood was introduced by Mr. Thomas A. Davis, and talked for an hour or so. He spoke from manuscript, paying a touching tribute to the brave ones who fell during the late struggle and those who have since joined them in "the silent cities of the dead" scattered throughout the union.

Dr. St. Clair, who escaped from the Frankfort penitentiary a short time ago, was arrested at Cincinnati Friday evening by Detective Billy Toker.

During a quarrel Saturday night Geo. King hit Tilden Wood, of the Sixth ward, on the head with a base ball bat, but Wood fortunately escaped without serious injury.

A horse that scared at an electric car at Second and Commerce last evening came near running over Mr. Millard Williams who happened to be passing on his wheel. Williams was not hurt, but had a pretty narrow escape.

INVITATIONS have been issued by the "Emperor and Empress of Japan" to the marriage of the Crown Prince "Harn No Maya" to "Princess Kawada" Friday evening, June 4th, at the Central Presbyterian Church, this city.

Mr. AL. HOOBLER, of Vanceburg, was driving with his wife on the Salt Lick pike when the horse became frightened and unmanageable. Mrs. Hoobler was first thrown out, but escaped unhurt. Mr. Hoobler was thrown down an embankment and against a fence. He suffered internal injuries, from which it is feared he will die.

BURNED TO THE GROUND.

Residence of Mr. Elasha Moran in Charleston Bottom Destroyed Sunday.
Caught From a Defective Flue.

The residence of Mr. Elasha Moran, south of Broshears' Station, Charleston Bottom, was destroyed by fire between 12 and 1 o'clock Sunday.

The building was the old Moran home-stand and was a large two-story brick, with a two-story frame ell.

The fire started in the ell from a defective flue, and had gained such headway before discovered that all efforts to save the building were unsuccessful. The walls are all that was left of the structure.

The building was occupied by Mr. Moran and his tenant, Mr. J. F. Raebenocker. The former was not at home, and most all of his clothing except what he was wearing at the time was lost. Mr. and Mrs. Raebenocker also lost most of their clothing. Mr. Raebenocker and the neighbors succeeded in saving most of the furniture, carpets, &c.

The loss is placed at about $2,500 or $3,000. Mr. Moran had about $1,000 insurance on the building in the Farmers' Home Mutual of this county.

CINCINNATI TOBACCO MARKET.

Old Crop Higher Last Week—But Little Competition Between Manufacturers.

The Cincinnati Leaf Tobacco Warehouse Company in its circular for the week has the following:

Old tobacco sold higher this week, and quite a number of holders took advantage of the fact and disposed of these goods. We think it good judgment to do so while the sales are light and new tobacco scarce in the market.

Tips, red and color tobacco were all in good demand and may be quoted strong at last week's quotations. Very common goods are no better and the finer grades are not offered in sufficient quantities to make quotations, but they would sell higher, however, if the buyers had confidence in their keeping order.

There is but little competition between manufacturers on the break, but a better speculative demand than we have noticed for some time.

Offerings were light during the week and bids generally accepted, with only a small proportion of rejections. Receipts are increasing and are about as large as the normal sales, so that there will probably be no reduction of stocks.

We have no additional news with reference to the probable quantity of tobacco to be set out this season, but, as stated before, there is every reason to believe that there are not nearly such preparations making as last year, and the crop will, of course, be much later. Considerable setting, however, has been done this and last week.

The man who stands idly by and sees the life fading out of his wife's face, sees her health going, sees her becoming old and faded and wrinkled when she should still be in the perfect enjoyment of vigorous, useful health, is either less than a man or else does not know of the one remedy which will bring her back to health and strength. Perhaps her husband cannot persuade her to go to her doctor, because she naturally dreads the inevitable "examination" and "local treatments." He can persuade her, if she needs persuasion, to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This truly wonderful medicine has cured hundreds of women after the best physicians have failed. It has been in constant use and tested every day for thirty years. It isn't an experiment, there are no chances about it. It is a certain cure for all derangements, weaknesses, irregularities and displacements of internal organs peculiar to women.

IN MEMORIAM.

Died at his home in Murphysville on May 10th, 1897, Huntington Forman in the nineteenth year of his age.

Such was the sad and sudden news heard by the many friends of Huntington Forman. If death is so terrible to us all, how terrible must it have been to his fond parents, sisters and brothers to see him go forth that beautiful afternoon in perfect health and a few hours later to be carried into their presence cold in death, his cheery voice hushed and always of ready to plan some amusement, in which he always took an active part. The removal of such a life from our midst leaves a vacancy and a shadow that is deeply realized by his host of friends. But time the great healer comes and applies his soothing balm to our wounded hearts and we take up the burden and say, "He doeth all things well," and cherish in memory every act, word and deed of the departed friend, and thus feel to-night, and thinking of his flower-covered grave, brings this one poor little flower of thought, an humble tribute to the memory of one, who was to me a kind friend. His remains were taken to Shannon, Ky., and laid to rest in the beautiful little cemetery after a lovely tribute was paid to his memory by Rev. Redden who officiated at the obsequies.

And with faith in the future we saw him tenderly laid in his last resting place, not only thinking, but believing with the heart, "We shall sleep, but not forever, There will be a glorious dawn, We shall meet to part, no never; On the resurrection morn.

From the deepest caves of ocean, From the desert and the plain; From the valley and the mountain, Countless throngs shall rise again.

We shall sleep, but not forever, In the lone and silent grave; Blessed be the Lord that giveth life, Blessed be the Lord that giveth life.

In the bright eternal city, Death can never, never come; In his own good time he calls us, From our rest to home, sweet home."

UNDOUBTEDLY A MURDER.

A Wealthy Cincinnati Merchant's Body Fished Out of a Lake.

DETROIT, May 31.—The remains of John Koller, were found in Swan Creek, just below Newport, Mich., with a bullet hole in the head. Henry Lafountain, a fisherman, made the ghastly discovery and at once notified the authorities. Upon investigation it proved undoubtedly a murder, as the ball had entered the back of the head, coming out of the mouth and splitting the tongue in its passage. The shot had evidently been fired at close range.

The murder theory is still further strengthened by the fact that the body was bruised about the chest and abdomen, and there was a wound on the head that appears to have been inflicted by a blunt instrument.

Koller left home Wednesday night, May 5. He wired his wife from Hamilton, Ont., that he had gone away on business, but would be home that evening. The following Thursday morning a letter written at the Wayne Hotel, Detroit, was received, containing four $50 express money orders, and stating that the writer intended to go to Buffalo and place himself in charge of the sisters.

Friday a letter postmarked Cleveland was received by Theodore J. Moeller containing receipts for $100, a gold watch and chain, a diamond pin and three rings, all of which had been sent by Koller to Moeller per express. It was learned that Koller arrived at Cleveland Thursday morning, but returned again to Detroit on the same steamer. He registered at the Hotel Wayne after supper, but said he changed his mind and would return to Cleveland again. He did not use his room. It is believed that he had from $1,000 to $1,500 on his person. Employees on the boat said he seemed very strange.

Theodore J. Moeller arrived from Cincinnati yesterday and immediately positively identified the body as that of his father-in-law, John Koller, the missing Cincinnati merchant. He will take the remains home. Mr. Moeller feels certain that Mr. Koller was murdered. He says that the dead man's business and family relations were entirely pleasant. It seems that after leaving Cincinnati May 5, Mr. Koller came to Detroit by steamer from Cleveland. The last time that he was known to have been seen was when he disembarked in Detroit on the morning of May 7.

VIGILANCE RELAXED.

Another Break Has Occurred in the Levee Just Below Baton Rouge.

NEW ORLEANS, May 31.—A crevasse resulting from over confidence and relaxation of vigilance occurred at 6 o'clock yesterday morning at the levee at Conrads Point, four miles by rail below Baton Rouge on the east side of the Mississippi river. At 2 o'clock yesterday morning information was received at Baton Rouge that the levee at Conrads' sugar house was leaking badly and that a crevasse was likely to occur at any moment.

There had been a feeling of almost perfect security throughout that section and the thought of a crevasse had not entered into the calculation of things likely to take place. There were no laborers within call as they had all been discharged and sent to their homes. The levee authorities at Baton Rouge hastily gathered together a force of men and placing them on barges of material which happened to be anchored along the front of the Burton sawmill and by 4 o'clock a tug was towing the barges of men and material to the scene of danger.

At 6 o'clock, shortly before the barges arrived at the plantation, the levee burst with a loud report, and the water in a stream forty feet wide and seven feet deep poured through the breaks and spread rapidly over the fertile lands in the vicinity. The officials of the Pontchartrain levee district and of the Illinois Central railroad are on hand with large forces of men and unlimited supplies of material, and will no doubt succeed in closing the break before any very serious damage is done to the adjacent plantations.

DUEL TO DEATH.

Two Young Men Kill Each Other at a Church Gathering.

SWEETHOME, Tex., May 31.—The neighborhood was assembled at Salem church, eight miles from here, yesterday, in observance of Decoration Day. Two young men, Will Lewis and Wit Bosworth, were among the number. Bad blood existed between them, too much talk being the cause. They walked away from the crowd together and stopped after going some distance, appearing to talk the matter over very calmly. One turned as if to leave, when the other drew a revolver. The other wheeled and both fired about the same instant and continued until their revolvers were empty.

Both were dead when their friends got to them. Every bullet fired by each man took effect in his opponent. Lewis was shot three times through the body and once through the arm. Bosworth was hit twice in the head, twice in the body and once in the leg. The duel could have been prevented, but every one thought when they walked away that they were likely to patch up their troubles, and as this was desired they were allowed a clear field.

A Jealous Girl's Deed.

MONTPELIER, Vt., May 31.—Miss Mildred Brewster, the daughter of a wealthy farmer of Huntington shot, probably fatally, Miss Annie Wheeler, of whom she is alleged to have been jealous. The deed was committed in a lonely spot on the outskirts of this city. After shooting Miss Wheeler the Brewster girl turned the revolver on herself, inflicting a serious and possibly a fatal wound.

Met Death in a Folding Bed.

MONTPELIER, Vt., May 31.—A folding bed in the Union House closed automatically during last night while Henry Kendall, aged 63, was asleep in it. He was dead when taken out, having either been smothered or died of heart failure induced by fright.

A Wonderful Blind Pianist.

Signor Arturo Nuttini is a blind pianist who is not a freak, but a player of remarkable ability. He was born in Florence 33 years ago and became totally blind in his first year, but he now plays the most difficult rhapsodies of Liszt, sonatas of Beethoven and other classical compositions with wonderful technique and expression. While Paderewski and his contemporaries play Liszt's "Hungarian Rhapsodie No. 6," one of the most difficult compositions, in a transposed key, Signor Nuttini plays it in the original key—six sharps.

The way Signor Nuttini learns his pieces is curious. He has a little machine, consisting of a flat metal board, in which there are tiny grooves, over which he fits a sheet of thick paper, and, with the aid of a little ruler and awl, perforates all his music in a peculiar manner as his interpreter reads it from the regular staff. No music is too intricate for him to copy, and often after once copying the composition he can play it without first running his sensitive fingers over the perforations.—San Francisco Argonaut.

Murdered by Robbers.

WARREN, O., May 28.—Isaac J. Hill, a farmer living at Farmington, was murdered Saturday night by burglars. Hill lived with his aged mother. The robbers broke into the house, and after binding and otherwise mistreating the old woman they went up stairs where Hill slept. They first clubbed Hill over the head and then shot him. There were evidences in the house of a terrible struggle, which goes to show that Hill made desperate resistance. So far as known the robbers got nothing, as Mrs. Hill says there was no money in the house. There is no clue to the murderers.

Decoration Day Snowstorms.

MILWAUKEE, May 31.—Many points in Michigan and Wisconsin experienced the novelty of Decoration Day snowstorms yesterday. At Menominee, Mich., it snowed at frequent intervals all day, some times quite hard. At Bayfield, Wis., sufficient snow fell Saturday night to cover the ground, and the thermometer dropped to 30. At Oshkosh, Wis., snow fell yesterday morning and at noon the thermometer registered the lowest in many years at this season.

Drowned in a Tank.

AEBOTT, Tex., May 31.—Mrs. Fannie L. Barr, her 4-year-old babe and her sister, Miss Mattie L. Alexander, aged 14, were all drowned in a tank near the house. The boy was playing in the shallow water and inadvertently stepped off into a deep hole in the center of the tank, and the ladies were drowned in trying to rescue the little fellow.

Condemned of Victory.

NEW YORK, May 31.—The big strike of garment makers has entered upon its third week. About 2,500 operators whose employers have signed the new agreement have returned to work, leaving about 22,400 still on strike in this city and vicinity. Leader Meyer Schoenfeld says that there is many omens of success for the strike and expresses himself as satisfied that the operators will not return to work under the old conditions.

Thrown From a Carriage.

PLEASANTVILLE, O., May 31.—As Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Friend were driving a spirited horse, it shied suddenly, overturning the carriage and throwing the occupants down a steep embankment. Mr. Friend was seriously bruised and Mrs. Friend received a broken collarbone and serious internal injuries.
